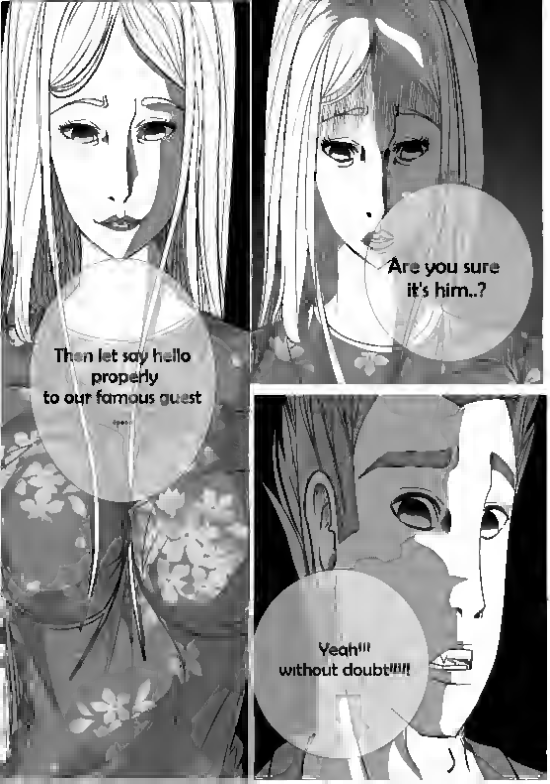
FEELINGS



Are you sure it's him..?
Then let say hello properly to our famous guest
Yeah!!! without doubt!!!!

Please let me go
I won't talk to anyone
about this place
I promise...

hey!
we are not criminals
We just want to know
some informations
about someone in your censored stuff
That's why
we brought you here
to talk calmly

You really want to die.....

Anything you want
but please don't kill me

Huh...?
Do you know this man...?
Yeah!
this is Hagoshi Tonbama
he's journalist
in my company...
I hired him because he has the ability to write easily a story about vampire
...

Sense them...?
but he went crazy about vampire... he said he could sense them and get informations from them...
You just have to ...
Yeah! this man was very crazy but don't worry I'll sack him if he's an obstacle for you ...

As my reward for your cooperation....
I think you said plenty thanks for your help....

AHAHAH AHAAHH
!!!!!

Don't worry about it
AHAHAHAH
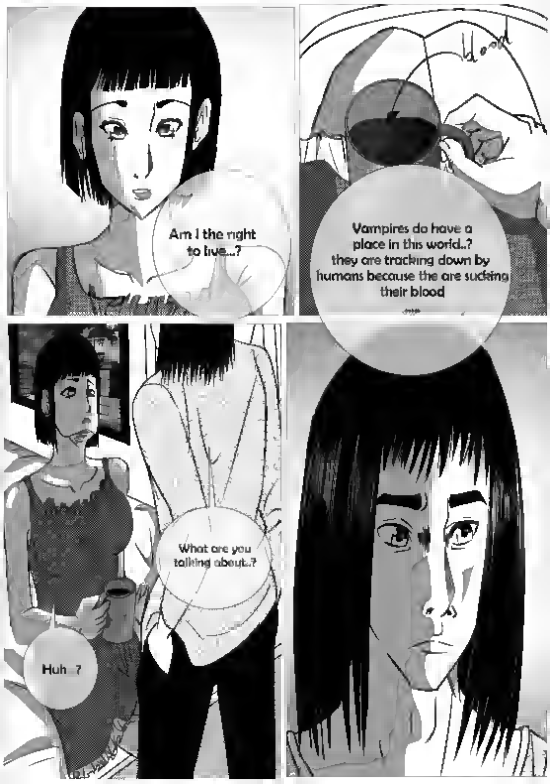
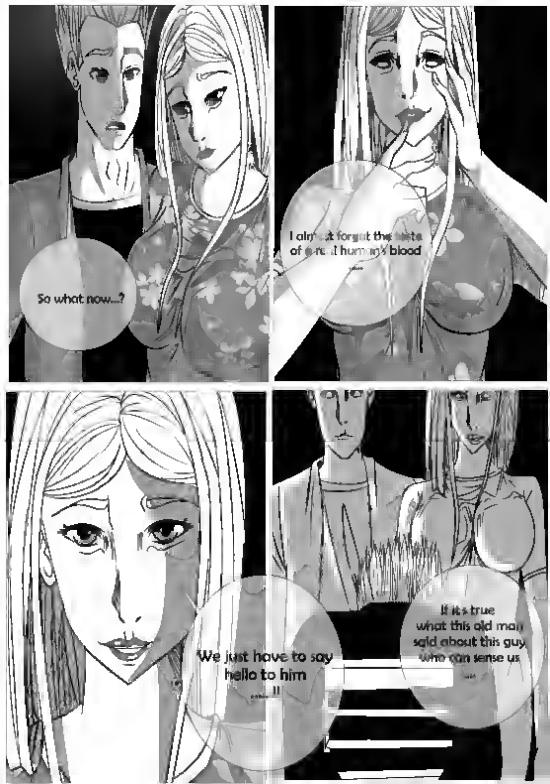
Is it a screaming of a human...?
Why vampires and humans have to fight? but can't live together...?

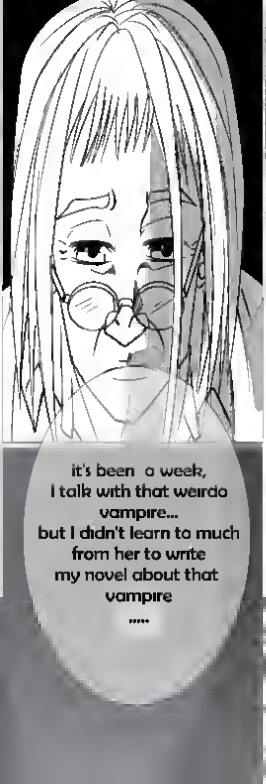


Am I the right to live...?
Vampires do have a place in this world..? they are tracking down by humans because the are sucking their blood
What are you talking about..?
Huh...?

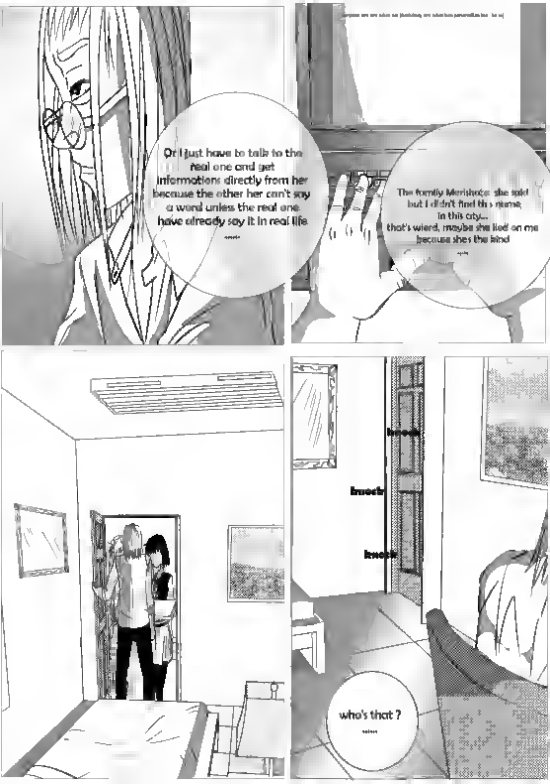
Vampires and humans can't live together because they are different species... we are not the same and you have to know that... we can't helped we need humans to survive
.....
And just keep in mind we are all living being we all have the right to live
....
so don't hate yourself because you are a vampire...
because we are all born to accomplish something...
Even you Nami Morishita
.....



So what now...?
I almost forgot the taste of it... I hunger for blood
We just have to say hello to him
If it's true what this old man said about this guy who can sense us



it's been a week,
I talk with that weirdo vampire...
but I didn't learn to much from her to write my novel about that vampire
.....



Or I just have to talk to the real one and get informations directly from her because the other her can't say a word unless the real one have already say it in real life
...
The family Morishige she said but I didn't find this name in this city... that's weird, maybe she lied on me because shes the blind
...
knock knock knock who's that ?
...

MY GUN IS MUCH

Don't tell me you forgot your birthday? ...
You asked me if I'm sure to know the day when I am born... are you serious?
Are you sure...?
but I told you my birthday is not today ...

Not offense you but sometimes you are little lost and forget important things...
I know perfectly what I'm doing and I know today is not my birthday Yeah but... there is not but... I'm not not an old man and I can sense your guys are here for something

What are you writing...?
HEY!!! GIVE ME THAT!
Nothing interesting !!!
What are you hiding uncle...?

And thanks for the pizza... see you!!
Nothing I told you ...
Now it's time to go...
Hey! with what I didn't finish ...
He just kicks us out ...

But my sense was never wrong... and yesterday, I sense him in danger
So did you see something weird up there...?
No!! I didn't noticed anything maybe that's the proof that your uncle is not in danger...
What is it..?
What did you read on the person ..?

BE CAREFUL YOU'RE BACK !!!
What...
When you read that paper and he saw you he starts to panic... there was definitely something weird writing in that paper...
AIEE
What's his problem..?

Hey!! wait a minute his teeth looks like a vam...
He s soul is really in a bad condition as himself...if he doesn't do something about that is gonna die
Hummm

Normaly vampires don't show up the day but I assume that vampire lost his mind and do whatever he wants... I just have to follow him and maybe he could show me where they are hiding
No need to have your ability to see that guy has a loud soul behing him. and plus that he has blood on his cloth
So you too you noticed that he's a vampire
You can't... It's too dangerous
We don't have another alternative
HEY!ACHITA!! WAIT THE OTHER!
